Description: The CDU provides free access and support to the UK Census Aggregate Statistics, Experian Mosaic Public Sector data, postcode lookup data and other derived data to the UK academic sector. This is the start of the Census registration process to obtain free access to census data. Registration will provide online access to the 1971-2001 census data resources and will also entitle you to use the resources of the Economic and Social Data Service (ESDS) and the History Data Service (HDS). Each individual requiring access to data is required to register before access can be granted. Registration is only available to those carrying out academic and related work in UK higher and further education, some associated institutions and UK Research Council staff.
