Description: An open source framework for systems biology connecting heterogeneous software applications written in diverse programming languages and running on different platforms-to communicate and use each others" capabilities via a fast binary encoded-message system. It uses a broker-based, distributed, message-passing architecture, supports many languages including Java, C++, Perl & Python, and runs under Linux,OSX & Win32. Many biological modeling and simulation tools are a part of SBW, including JDesigner and Jarnac.
