Description: Florida Agricultural and Mechanical University (FAMU) is an 1890 land-grant institution dedicated to the advancement of knowledge, resolution of complex issues and the empowerment of citizens and communities. The University provides a student-centered environment consistent with its core values. The faculty is committed to educating students at the undergraduate, graduate, doctoral and professional levels, preparing graduates to apply their knowledge, critical thinking skills and creativity in their service to society. FAMU's distinction as a doctoral/research institution will continue to provide mechanisms to address emerging issues through local and global partnerships. Expanding upon the University's land-grant status, it will enhance the lives of constituents through innovative research, engaging cooperative extension, and public service. While the University continues its historic mission of educating African Americans, FAMU embraces persons of all races, ethnic origins and nationalities as life-long members of the university community. Florida A&M University (FAMU) offers 62 bachelor's degrees in 94 majors/tracks, and 37 master's degrees with 50 majors/tracks and one specialist degree program. The university has 13 schools and colleges and one institute. FAMU offers three professional degrees: the JD, PharmD, and the doctor of physical therapy. FAMU also has 11 doctoral degree programs including 10 Ph.D. degrees and one doctor of public health. The Ph.D. degrees are offered in the following areas: biomedical engineering; chemical engineering; civil engineering; electrical engineering; mechanical engineering; industrial engineering; pharmaceutical sciences; physics; educational leadership; and environmental science.
