

Neuroscience Information Framework (NIF)

An initiative of the NIH Blueprint for Neuroscience Research, the Neuroscience Information Framework enables discovery and access to public research data and tools through an open source dynamic inventory of neuroscience resources, annotated and integrated with a unified system of biomedical terminology.

For more information on the NIF Project, visit neuinfo.org.

Where can I find software tools, reagents, ko-mice, and data?

Join us for an...

INTRODUCTION TO NIF

FRIDAY, JUNE 4TH
LEICHTAG LECTURE ROOM 107

This informative session will demonstrate the use of NIF for students, researchers, and educators.

Free pizza will be available for attendees.

11:30 AM - 1:00 PM • Demonstration & Pizza

1:00 PM - 2:30 PM • Open Discussion With NIF Team Members